Title of report PCC CSDF – ‘Just Enough’ Modern Slavery workshops - continuation
Report by Greg Myddelton
Enquiries to Greg Myddelton (greg.myddelton@essex.pnn.police.uk)

1. Purpose of report

- 1.1. To seek approval for the allocation of a further £3,100 crime and disorder reduction grant from the 2016-17 CSDF to Just Enough UK to run an additional series of Modern Day Slavery workshops in schools across Essex.

2. Recommendations

- 2.1. Approve the allocation of a Community Safety grant to deliver a series of 10 modern-day slavery workshops in schools across Essex.

3. Benefits of Proposal

- 3.1. This project will allow Just Enough UK to deliver an additional 10 workshops in Essex schools which educate children and teachers on modern day slavery.
- 3.2. The project aims to teach young people that slavery exists in the UK today, what the 5 signs of slavery are, and how to recognise & avoid risky situations. Young people are also taught that if they see something suspicious they can talk to their teacher and report suspicions to the Modern Slavery Helpline.

4. Background and proposal

- 4.1. The project will deliver workshop content to 600 young people in schools across Essex, and will provide teachers with future lesson plans to follow-up the original workshop and consolidate learning. Just Enough will evaluate the project to examine the extent to which it achieves its objectives of raising awareness and improving understanding of what constitutes modern slavery and what to do if young people observe any suspicious activity that they believe may constitute slavery. Feedback from initial sessions has been positive, with >90% young people rating the workshops excellent or good.

5. Police and Crime Plan

5.1. This proposal supports the PCC's vision and delivery of the following key areas of focus:

- Reducing hidden harm
- Improving crime prevention
- Supporting victims of crime
- Ensuring local solutions meet local problems

6. Police Operational Implications

6.1. There are no operational implications.

7. Financial Implications

7.1. The PCC would provide £3,100 from the 2016-17 CSDF to Just Enough UK.

8. Legal Implications

8.1. The award of the grant is subject to the PCC's standard funding agreement.

9. Staffing and other resource implications

9.1. There are no staffing issues

10. Equality and Diversity implications

10.1. There are no equality and diversity implications
