Title of report: Interim Appointment – PFCC Deputy Section 151 Officer
Area of County/Stakeholders affected: Countywide
Report by : Jane Gardner Date of report: 26 th September 2018 Enquiries to: jane.gardner2@essex.pnn.police.uk

1. Purpose of report

To appoint an interim deputy Section 151 ("S151") officer for the OPFCC in relation to policing and crime matters, and to delegate to her the appropriate functions to perform this role.

Section 151 of the Local Government Act 1972 requires authorities to make arrangements for the proper administration of their financial affairs and to appoint a S151 / Chief Finance Officer to have responsibility for those arrangements. The role of the S151 officer is set out in Section 151 of the Local Government Act 1972.

The Chief Finance Officer is the financial advisor to the PFCC and has a statutory responsibility to manage his financial affairs as detailed in section 112 and 114 of the Local Government Finance Act 1988 as well as the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2011.

2. Recommendations

- 1) That Abbey Gough (the OPFCC's Financial Scrutiny Officer) continues to act as interim deputy S151 officer for the PFCC in relation to policing and crime matters for the period 19 June 2018 – 31 December 2018.

- 2) That the functions delegated to the Chief Finance Officer under the PFCC's Scheme of Delegation be delegated to the interim deputy s151 officer throughout the period for which she is covering this role.

3. Benefits of Proposal

The interim deputy S151 officer will support the S151 Officer in their duties and be able to deputise for the S151 officer when they are unavailable, thus providing staff resilience and ensuring continued compliance with statutory requirements.

4. Background and proposal

The Essex PFCC's Treasurer and Section 151 Officer is Charles Garbett. The appointment of an interim deputy S151 officer will provide support and resilience within the OPFCC if the S151 officer is not available.

Under decision sheet PFCC/39/18 Abbey Gough was appointed interim deputy S151 officer for an initial three months, commencing 19 March 2018. Following the planned review, it is proposed that Abbey Gough continue to act as the interim deputy S151 officer for the period 19 June 2018 – 31 December 2018.

In order to achieve this, the following functions delegated to the Chief Finance Officer under the PFCC's Scheme of Delegation will need to be delegated to the interim deputy s151 officer for the period for which they are covered, as follows:

- To approve the arrangements for the Treasury management function including the day to day management and production of the Treasury Management Strategy and supporting policies and procedures.
- To approve the arrangements for securing and preparing the PFCC's accounts, and seek assurances that there are appropriate arrangements in place for the force's accounts.
- To approve the opening of all bank accounts.
- To undertake the day to day management of the PFCC's budget.
- To commit expenditure within the PFCC's approved budget to meet the policies and objectives agreed with the PFCC and reflected in the Police and Crime Plan.
- To manage the grants awarded to the PFCC.
- To prepare from time to time draft financial and contract regulations, in consultation with and having due regard to the view of the force, for approval by the PFCC.
- To act as the money laundering reporting officer under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and Money Laundering Regulations 2003 or other appropriate legislation from time to time in force.
- To prepare and annually review financial and contract regulations, in consultation with the force, for approval by the PFCC or the Deputy PFCC.
- To prepare and annually review a draft expenses and benefits framework for approval by the PFCC.
- To determine when any goods are surplus to requirements or obsolete and arrange for disposal in line with financial requirements.
- To report to the PFCC and the external auditor any unlawful or potentially unlawful spending by his or the force's officers.
- To provide for an effective internal audit service.

5. Police and Crime Plan

This will help to deliver on the priorities as set out in the Police and Crime Plan.

6. Police Operational Implications

There are no operational implications.

7. Financial Implications

An appropriately qualified interim deputy section 151 officer has been appointed to cover the duties and responsibilities carried out by the section 151 role. Abbey Gough will receive an Honoraria payment of £1,891.69 pcm for undertaking these duties throughout the period for which they are covered as they are in addition to the responsibilities of her substantive post.

The financial implications of the proposal can be met within the underspend currently forecast on salaries (of approximately £56k) brought about by various part-year vacancies experienced throughout the year.

8. Legal Implications

As set out above, Section 151 of the Local Government Act 1972 requires authorities to make arrangements for the proper administration of their financial affairs and to appoint a S151 / Chief Finance Officer to have responsibility for those arrangements. The Chief Finance Officer is the financial advisor to the PFCC and has a statutory responsibility to manage his financial affairs as detailed in section 112 and 114 of the Local Government Finance Act 1988 as well as the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2011.

The Chief Finance Officer must ensure that the financial affairs of the PFCC are properly administered, having regard to their probity, legality and relevant standards. Whilst undertaking her duties, the interim s151 officer must comply with all relevant statutory and regulatory requirements as well as:

- The Police and Social Responsibility Act 2011 and other relevant legislation issued under this Act
- Financial Regulations
- Home Office Financial Management Code of Practice for the police service
- CIPFA Statement on the role of the Chief Finance Officer of a PCC
- Contract Regulations
- OFPCC and Essex Police employment policies and procedures
- The PFCC's Constitution
- The Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- Health and Safety at Work legislation and codes
- The Equality Act 2010 and related equality and diversity regulations and guidance

9. Staffing and other resource implications

Approval of the interim deputy section 151 role does not create any new posts nor increase the establishment within the OPFCC.

10. Equality and Diversity implications

There are no equality and diversity implications.
