1. About the PFCC

Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs) were elected for the second time on 5th May 2016 in 40 force areas across England and Wales. In October 2017 the Essex PCC took on the responsibility for the governance of the Essex County Fire and Rescue Service, becoming the first Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner (PFCC) in England and Wales. PCCs and PFCCs are publicly elected to hold Chief Constables and their local force to account; effectively making the police answerable to the communities they serve. PCCs and PFCCs also ensure community needs are met as effectively as possible, and improve local relationships through building confidence and restoring trust. They work in partnership across a range of agencies at a local and national level to ensure there is a unified approach to preventing and reducing crime.

PFCCs are legally responsible for securing an efficient and effective police force for their area. They also appoint the Chief Constable and Chief Fire Officer, hold them to account for operational delivery, and if necessary have the power to dismiss them. PFCCs also set the police, fire and crime objectives for their area through a Police and Crime Plan and a Fire and Rescue Plan. They bring together community safety and criminal justice partners, to make sure local priorities are joined up. They also set budgets, determine the local policing and fire and rescue precepts, and contribute to the national and international policing capabilities set out by the Home Secretary.

The Police and Crime Plan identified volunteering as one of the main building blocks for success for the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner for Essex (PFCC). The PFCC would like the police to be a part of local communities and local communities to be a part of the police by encouraging more people to play an active role within their communities.

2. Summary of changes

Version 1.1 – minor updates from previous version. Appendix A has been updated with the latest Facilitator Agreement. Review dates for this policy have been amended from annual to biennial with the next review scheduled for May 2022.

3. Purpose of our volunteer policy

This policy provides guidance for those volunteering with the PFCC only, including the Restorative Justice, Dog Welfare, and Independent Custody Visitor schemes.

The aim of this policy is to provide a clear framework for volunteering across the organisation. In particular it will:

- provide a clear understanding of how volunteers and potential volunteers can add value to the PFCC;
 - identify opportunities for volunteering within the organisation;
 - outline clear responsibilities and guidance for those employees who manage volunteers;
 - create consistency to ensure all who volunteer for the PFCC are treated equally and fairly;
- and

- allow volunteers to understand what can be expected from the PFCC as well as what is expected from them.

This policy applies to all current and future volunteers engaged with the PFCC.

Volunteers are not employees and have no employment status except under Health and Safety legislation, but will be expected to conduct themselves in accordance with certain principles and procedures applicable to all who represent this office in any form. These include, but are not limited to, the PFCC's values, General Data Protection Regulation \(GDPR\) legislation, security protocols, and the Nolan principles of public life.

The participation of the volunteer does not create a contract of employment but volunteers will be required to sign a volunteer agreement or memorandum of understanding detailing the relationship between themselves and the PFCC.

Either party may cancel the relationship at any time.

Any task undertaken by the PFCC volunteer is intended to be additional or supplementary to work currently undertaken by paid employees and staff members for the PFCC. They should not be used as pre-planned substitutes or alternatives to fill a role normally performed by full and part-time staff.

All PFCC employees are expected to interact positively and constructively with volunteers and vice-versa.

Compliance with this policy is mandatory.

This policy was written in consultation with PFCC volunteers.

4. Volunteering roles within the PFCC

This policy defines the following roles currently available within the PFCC's office

4.1. Essex Restorative and Mediation Service Volunteer Facilitator

The Essex Restorative and Mediation Service (ERMS) facilitates safe and effective communication between parties in conflict to encourage mutually agreed, positive outcomes for all involved. The ERMS works with criminal cases to allow victims of crime to explain the consequences to the offender and ask questions. The offender is encouraged to take responsibility for their behaviour and make amends. The ERMS also works with disputes (such as neighbour disputes) in order to help find a way for everyone to live peacefully. The process is voluntary and goes at the pace of those involved. Under the 2015 Victim's Code of Practice, every victim of crime has the right to receive information about Restorative Justice and how they can take part in the process. The ERMS works with other agencies and organisations in order to reach every member of the Essex community and enable them access to RJ, including:

- Essex Police
- HM Prison and Probation Service
- Housing Associations
- Local Authorities

- HM Courts and Tribunals Service
- Victim Support
- Youth Offending Services
- Schools

ERMS has a number of volunteers which are essential in the delivery of the restorative and mediation service. The role includes meeting participants and by providing a restorative approach, enables safe and effective communication to encourage mutually agreed, positive outcomes for all involved.

In 2016 the ERMS was awarded the Restorative Service Quality Mark in recognition of meeting Restorative Service Standards.

4.2. Independent Custody Visitor Volunteer

The Police Reform Act 2002 introduced the Independent Custody Visitor (ICV) scheme. Responsibility for the local running of this scheme now sits with the PFCC. The programme is designed to independently monitor the standards of police custody suites, and safeguard the welfare of people detained within them.

The scheme enables appointed volunteers to visit police station custody suites at any time of the day or night, to check on the treatment of detainees, the conditions in which they are held and that their rights and entitlements are being observed.

It offers protection to both detainees and the police, and should provide reassurance to the wider public. Custody visitors carry out between two and four visits to custody suites per month, and complete and submit a simple report to the PFCC after each visit.

Visits must be undertaken in pairs for health and safety reasons and generally last no more than an hour although there are no specific rules regarding how long visits should take. It is important that visitors are able to compare different custody suites and the standards within them, so volunteers visit more than one suite in their local geographical cluster and at varying times of the day and of the week wherever possible.

ICV volunteers are not there to investigate or become involved in any of the on-going investigations which have resulted in the detention of a person.

When custody visitors attend police custody suites they must remain impartial and look, listen and report on what is seen or said to them by detained people about their experience since arriving in custody. After each visit a report provides a current picture of the custody suite, and any issues that the custody visitor has identified relating to the maintenance standards of the facility, and the rights and welfare of those detained in custody. Systems are in place to ensure that the output from visits is rapidly drawn to the attention of those in a position to respond accordingly. The PFCC is responsible for drawing together issues and identifying trends emerging from visits and addressing these with relevant police representatives. Regular reports shall be provided by the administrator of the scheme to the PFCC. The PFCC must have a regular and formal opportunity to raise concerns and issues with a designated senior officer with force-wide responsibilities. It will usually be appropriate for that officer to be of at least Assistant Chief Constable/Commander rank.

In May 2019 the Essex ICV scheme achieved a silver award at the National Independent Custody Visiting Association Quality Assurance awards, which are national awards that recognise the quality of local ICV programmes.

4.3. The Dog Welfare Visitor Volunteer

The function of the Dog Welfare Visitor is to protect working police dogs. The scheme is non-statutory and is delivered by volunteers from the local community. It provides Essex Police with an independent monitoring body that will advise and make recommendations about the care of animals. The scheme satisfies the public that the care and treatment of Police dogs in Essex is humane, ethical and transparent and complies with the Animal Welfare Act 2006. Visitors inspect the working conditions of the dogs and observe the conditions under which police dogs are trained, transported, deployed and cared for. Visitors then submit completed reports back to the PFCC. Each police dog is to be inspected by an Independent Dog Welfare Visitor at least twice every six months and visitors are required to complete a report form of their findings and return it to the Scheme Administrator for recording.

5. Volunteer recruitment, interview and appointment

The relevant Manager/Coordinator is responsible for overseeing volunteer recruitment for their volunteering scheme. Volunteers must be over 18 years of age, and have a minimum of 3 years' UK residence provable with documentation. They should also be able to provide identification and a proof of address and will be asked to declare any cautions or convictions as part of the recruitment process. Essex Restorative and Mediation Service cannot accept applicants who currently serve as Magistrates or police officers, including Special Constables.

Applicants are required to complete an application form for their preferred position, which will be reviewed by the relevant department and service coordinator. Where applicants meet the required criteria, candidates will be invited for interview to assess their suitability for the role. The interview also serves to establish expectations and ask for the candidate's preferences for working time and geographical locations. Prior to an interview, applicants will be asked to bring a proof of ID and a proof of address as well as complete a vetting form. Successful completion of the vetting process is a pre-requisite for any volunteering role with the PFCC.

6. Vetting

All applicants must successfully complete the vetting process prior to acceptance. Vetting will be carried out by the Vetting Department within Essex Police where applicants are verified via background security checks. Applicants will be asked to complete a vetting form which needs to be verified by the relevant Manager/Coordinator before being submitted to Essex Police corporate vetting.

Volunteers will be vetted to various levels, depending on the role:

- Essex Restorative and Mediation Service Facilitator – NPPV level 1
- Independent Custody Visitor – NPPV level 2 or NPPV level 3
- Dog Welfare Visitor – NPPV level 2

More information on the vetting process can be found on the Essex Police Vetting FAQ website.

Once documents have been sent to vetting, all scanned and original documents held in the PFCC will be destroyed. The relevant service Manager/Coordinator will receive notification of a pass or fail of vetting.

Essex Police reserve the right not to disclose the reason for failing the vetting process. Applicants who fail the vetting will not be able to volunteer with the PFCC.

If vetting is completed successfully, candidates will be processed further to receive a SAP number which allows them to gain an ID badge and receive expenses payments.

All volunteers will be informed of the date of expiry of their vetting and will be asked to resubmit the necessary forms in good time when re-vetting is required.

7. Training & Induction

Successful applicants will be offered a place on the next available training course. Training is essential for all volunteering roles and will ensure that volunteers are familiar with what is expected from them as well as set guidance and procedures to follow when volunteering with the PFCC.

7.1. The Essex Restorative and Mediation Service requires applicants to complete a 4-day in-house training course with a qualified Restorative Justice trainer before they can be given access to the case management system and be allocated cases. By the end of the training, applicants will be asked to sign a volunteer agreement (see Appendix A) which specifies the volunteer's role and responsibilities within the service. New facilitators will be paired with more experienced and skilled facilitators to guide them through the process and navigate the case management system.

7.2. Independent Custody Visitors are required to undertake a one-day training event hosted by the service manager and an additional day of training by the national association – the Independent Custody Visitor Association (ICVA). By the end of the training applicants are asked to sign a memorandum of understanding (see Appendix B). ICVs always work in pairs and initially new volunteers will complete visits with more experienced custody visitors.

7.3. Dog Welfare Visitors are required to complete 1 day in-house training provided by the scheme Manager in partnership with the Essex Police Dog Unit in accordance with DEFRA guidelines, the five categories being:

- The Need for a Suitable Environment
- The Need for a Suitable Diet
- The Need to be able to Exhibit Normal Behaviour Patterns
- The Need it has to be Housed With, or Apart from, Other Animals
- The Need to be Protected from Pain, Suffering, Injury and Disease.

By the end of the training, applicants will be asked to sign memorandum of understanding (see Appendix C).

8. Supervision, support and management

The relevant service Manager/Coordinator will be responsible for the day-to-day management and support of volunteers. With their consent, and in line with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), each volunteer will have a separate personnel file on the shared drive, consisting of their application form, interview notes, volunteer agreements, ID & IT (mobile phone) agreements (where applicable), and next of kin information. Access to these files is restricted to members of the Restorative Justice Team. In addition, volunteers may be granted supervised access to their own file upon application. A record of training received will be placed on a separate spreadsheet along with any other external work completed by volunteers. Volunteer information will be kept on file for a maximum of 12 months following a volunteer withdrawing from the service.

ERMS volunteers must make themselves available to take on a minimum of 4 cases per year, attend supervision at least once a year, and attend a minimum of one volunteer group meeting annually. Each volunteer should be familiar with the best point of contact during both office hours and in an emergency.

Each service will be responsible for its own volunteers' performance. Should a volunteer not be meeting the expectations of the service, or acting in a manner that might damage the reputation of the office, it is expected that this will be addressed directly with the volunteer in question and a mutually agreed resolution and way forward will be decided. Where appropriate, the PFCC may initiate a termination of agreement. This is explained in more detail in section 17 of this policy.

8.1. TRiM Access

Due to the nature of the tasks that volunteers undertake, they are entitled to access the TRiM (Trauma Risk Management) service provided by Essex Police. TRiM is a voluntary, peer to peer, non-clinical discussion. The requirement for a TRiM referral can be identified through weekly case supervision, and in regular case supervisor check-ups. Volunteers can contact the TRiM coordinator directly or via ERMS. A TRiM assessment aims to identify if a volunteer is normalising events, or alternatively if they are displaying signs of potentially needing additional support.

8.2. Access to Essex Police Occupational Health

All PFCC volunteers are entitled to have the same level of support available to them as paid employees regarding Welfare and Counselling. Volunteers can get in touch with the Essex Police Occupational Health Team either via phone or email who then will refer them to a relevant service. Please note that participants are entitled to up to six counselling sessions (exceptions to this may be made at the discretion of the counsellor).

9. Recognition and reward

The PFCC acknowledges that all its volunteers demonstrate commitment and add value to the work that the office carries out.

In order that PFCC volunteers are rewarded for their contributions, regular and varied training will be provided in order to upskill volunteers in their areas of volunteering, and in wider life skills. Volunteer events will be organised, in order that volunteers can network and socialise with each other and professionals within our own and partner organisations.

9.1. Benefits

PFCC volunteers are able to apply for Essex Police Sports Association (EPSA) membership and are entitled to use the benefits of that membership. These benefits include discounted goods and services as well as invitation to events. The relevant service Manager/Coordinator can send an application pack to those who are interested in becoming a member of EPSA.

10. Dress Code

Volunteers will not be required to wear a uniform for any PFCC volunteering role. Smart/casual clothes will be appropriate for most activities. Should this not be applicable to specific events, volunteers should be notified well in advance.

11. Identification and allocated equipment

Volunteers, once vetted, will be provided with an Essex Police ID card issued via Essex Police HQ Photographic. RJ and ICV volunteers will also be issued with additional ID badges with their service logo on them.

ID badges are to be worn at all times on police premises.

ICV volunteers will be issued with security (PAC) tags which give access to custody suites within Essex Police stations.

Essex Restorative and Mediation Service volunteers will be issued with a mobile phone which should be used for calls and texts relating to their volunteering role only. Misuse of phones or other equipment will trigger a review, and possibly lead to the withdrawal of equipment or removal of a volunteer from the service.

The relevant Manager/Coordinator will ensure the return and destruction of security identification and the collection of the PAC tag when the volunteer leaves their role.

All equipment given to volunteers (phones, PAC tags) should be signed for prior to allocation expressing that equipment must be used appropriately and only in the discharge of their volunteering responsibilities. Equipment remains the property of Essex Police at all times.

Volunteers will be provided with information relating to safety and security, including wearing their ID badges in public, unauthorised access to police buildings and the process to follow should their ID or PAC tags be lost or stolen. This will be included in their induction packs.

12. Expenses

The Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner has a duty to reimburse volunteers for travel expenses incurred in the normal undertaking of their voluntary role.

Volunteers must provide a copy of a VAT fuel receipt and receipts for other expenses to accompany each claim. Expense claims must be submitted using the appropriate form (see Appendix D). For each month, a separate claim form should be used. For example, if a claim spans June to August then 3 claim forms should be submitted; one for June, one for July and one for August.

Only expenses incurred in the direct delivery of volunteer work can be claimed. Indirect costs such as childcare, pet-care, or travel other than to a place of volunteering activity will not be approved.

All claims are subject to review prior to approval.

12.1. Travel expenses

PFCC volunteers can claim reasonable travel expenses for travelling between their home and place of volunteering, including parking charges. Mileage expenses can be reclaimed at 45p per mile with the provision of a VAT fuel receipt obtained in the same month as the claim. The table below outlines mileage allowances and guidance. The mileage allowance is set by the HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) rules on AMAPs (Approved Mileage Allowance Payments).

Type	Amount	Additional Guidance
Cars and vans	45p	Volunteer must provide details of the purpose of the journey and the route taken so the claim can be checked using online tools such as Google Maps.
Motorcycles	25p
Bicycle	20p

Volunteers are responsible for ensuring that their driving licenses are valid and their car insurance policies include 'Business Use'. This will be verified as part of a volunteer's induction.

12.2. Public transport

The PFCC encourages the use of public transport where possible as this is usually the most environmentally friendly method of travel and very often the most cost and time effective method. Travel on public transport should be standard class unless the volunteer can provide evidence that an alternative is the cheapest reasonable option. Claims made for non-standard class travel without this additional information will not be reimbursed. Public transport includes journeys made by train, bus, tram and underground.

12.3. Taxi journeys

The PFCC does not reimburse for taxi journeys unless under exceptional circumstances, determined at the discretion of the relevant service manager.

12.4. Vehicle Hire

For round trips of over 70 miles, costs are likely to be cheaper using a hire car rather than claiming the force mileage rate. Hire vehicles may be considered when it is not possible to take public transport. The decision to hire a vehicle will be discussed and agreed under the service manager's discretion and the booking will be completed by the Essex Police Business Centre.

12.5. Overnight accommodation

In exceptional circumstances, volunteers can claim overnight stay where it is unreasonable to expect a return journey to be made on the same day.

Any requirements for overnight stays will be discussed with volunteers and approved by the service manager prior to the journey, and bookings will be made by the Essex Police Business Centre. The Essex Police Business Centre will arrange hotel booking and payment.

In addition to overnight accommodation, the PFCC will reimburse reasonable out of pocket subsistence expenses incurred by volunteers when it is necessary to stay away from home overnight to volunteer for the PFCC. This is capped at £12 for dinner, and cannot include alcohol. Receipts must accompany all claims.

12.6. Subsistence

When a volunteer's time of work exceeds 4 hours, they can claim expenses for food or drink purchased while volunteering up to a maximum of £5 per person. This isn't an allowance, and the volunteer will need to provide receipts.

The PFCC can only pay subsistence claims for costs that have been incurred directly and wholly as a result of volunteering. Subsistence may cover drinks and food such as sandwiches, salads or hot meals.

If it is deemed appropriate and reasonable to meet at a neutral venue such as a café or coffee shop, volunteers can purchase refreshments such as hot drinks for themselves and participants. Claims should be accompanied by a receipt and must not exceed £10 per meeting.

The PFCC will provide a light lunch/buffet dinner for any regular volunteers meetings including facilitator meetings and the annual meeting for all PFCC volunteers. The PFCC will not provide lunch/food for any internal or external training events.

12.7. Receipts

The PFCC will accept paper or electronic receipts and/or tickets for fuel, parking, travel or subsistence for claiming expenses. In exceptional circumstances where receipts cannot be obtained or provided, bank or credit card statements demonstrating costs incurred may be considered at the discretion of the Essex Police Business Centre and service manager.

12.8. Submitting the form

Volunteers are required to claim all expenses within 4 months.

Each claim form must be signed by the volunteer, authorising coordinator/manager and the PFCC Section 151 (lead financial) Officer.

If claim forms are received by the Essex Police Business Centre before the 2nd of each month, reimbursement should occur in the next payroll run (usually on the 23rd of that month). If the expense form is received by the Business Centre after 2nd of the month, payment will be settled on the next payment run, normally the 23rd of the following month.

Forms that are incorrectly completed or unsigned will be returned to the volunteer for amendment and resubmission.

13. Records of Time Volunteered

An expectation of the hours volunteered is outlined in either the Facilitators Agreement (for RJ volunteers) or Memorandum of Understanding (for ICV and Dogs Welfare volunteers). All volunteers should record the hours volunteered, either on a case management system (Restorative Justice Volunteers) or via written reports (ICV volunteers and Dog Welfare volunteers).

13.1. Volunteering whilst on Benefits

PFCC volunteers are welcome to volunteer their time while they are receiving benefits provided that they follow legal guidelines. Volunteers have the responsibility to notify the relevant authorities of their volunteering role.

14. Lone working

Given the nature of the role, Independent Custody Visitors are not allowed to work alone. In accordance with ICVA regulations, ICV volunteers are required to write up a report after each visit which should be a true and unbiased reflection from two visitors.

Dog Welfare Scheme volunteers are able to volunteer alone as they will be accompanied by a dog handler at all times.

Essex Restorative and Mediation Service volunteer facilitators must seek prior approval before working alone and must adhere to the ERMS lone working policy.

15. Temporary absence from the role

15.1. Absence

The PFCC understands that other commitments and circumstances may require volunteers to take a temporary absence from the role. It is requested that volunteers inform the relevant service manager or coordinator of any planned absence and hand back their Essex Police property (ID badge, mobile phone and/or PAC tag) should the absence extend beyond 3 months. Where there is an expectation that the volunteer may return these items can be kept safe until the volunteer returns to their role.

The relevant Manager/Coordinator may offer a "return to role" meeting or refresher training following a long absence to update of any changes or identify support needs.

16. Complaints

The PFCC hopes each and every volunteer finds their volunteering experience rewarding and positive. However, if a volunteer feels that there is something that does not meet their expectations, there is a complaint procedure in place which volunteers can access via the appropriate service manager.

Should a member of the public make a complaint about a volunteer, the relevant service manager or coordinator will address the complaint using the PFCC complaint policy as a guide.

17. Termination of Agreement

The Volunteer Agreement or Memorandum of Understanding can be terminated at any time and by either party.

ERMS coordinators will offer an exit interview to any volunteer who decides to leave their role. This interview will be an opportunity to give feedback, and hand back any equipment given.

Should a termination be service-led, reasons for the termination will be discussed with the volunteer.

The relevant service manager will notify the Essex Police Vetting and IT department to update their records and close IT accounts (where applicable).

18. Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

The PFCC has a commitment to being an organisation that values equality and diversity. It is important that this commitment is upheld by everyone working and volunteering with the PFCC.

The PFCC aims to reach out to, represent, and value our diverse communities across Essex. This will be reflected in our recruitment and support of our volunteers, through means such as using a variety of channels for advertising vacancies, being mindful of volunteers' backgrounds and offering appropriate support and flexibility.

We will be mindful of reflecting our diverse community within our volunteers and will monitor and record self-reported diversity information.

For detailed information on the PFCC's policies on Equality and Diversity, please visit the PFCC website www.essex.pfcc.police.uk/contact-us/equality-and-diversity-information/

19. Insurance

As stated in section 12.1 of this policy, volunteers are responsible for ensuring that their car insurance policies include 'Business Use'. This will be verified as part of a volunteer's induction.

20. Confidentiality and data protection

The PFCC expects all volunteers to adhere to confidentiality guidelines which will be explained to volunteers during their induction training. This also includes during the use of social media and contact with the press.

21. Monitoring and Review

This policy will be subject to monitoring and review by the owner to ensure it remains accurate and compliant with both legislation and national/local drivers.

This policy will be subject to biennial review by the owner to ensure it remains fit for purpose.

Appendix A – Essex Restorative and Mediation Service Facilitator Agreement

Essex Restorative and Mediation Service Facilitator Agreement

This Facilitator Agreement describes the arrangement between

_____ and Essex Restorative and Mediation Service
(insert your name)

As a Restorative Facilitator, I agree to help meet the responsibilities of the Essex Restorative and Mediation Service as follows:

1. Operate on restorative principles, by providing a constructive and supportive environment in which victims can relay the impact of offences committed against them and gain closure, offenders can take responsibility for their actions and make amends, and parties in a dispute can communicate effectively in order to agree a productive way forward.
2. Meet the commitment the role demands (as outlined on the next page), and ensure that reasonable notice is given of my inability to undertake the role for any period of time so that other arrangements can be made.
3. Follow the procedures and standards expected of Essex Restorative and Mediation Service as explained in both initial and ongoing training, and as outlined in this and other policy documents.
4. Maintain the confidentiality of information received in the course of my work as a Restorative Facilitator within safeguarding guidelines, and ensure that information relating to participants in the process is not disclosed to a third party without consent.
5. Ensure that any personal or professional conflicts of interest in a case are flagged to the Service and you recuse yourself if a conflict arises.
6. Treat all individuals participating in the process fairly and not discriminate on the basis of age, ethnic or racial origin, gender, sexual orientation, social background, religion, disability or any other irrelevant factor.
7. Attend supervision, training and support provided by the Essex Restorative and Mediation Service (as outlined on the next page).
8. Notify a Restorative Justice Manager or Restorative Justice Coordinator of any relevant change of circumstances (e.g. if arrested by the police or change your address).

Essex Restorative and Mediation Service agrees to:

1. Provide a thorough induction on the work of the Essex Restorative and Mediation Service, the role of the Restorative Justice Manager and Restorative Justice Coordinator and the training needed to meet the responsibilities of the role.

2. Explain the standards and procedures expected of Restorative Facilitators and provide encouragement and support to achieve and maintain them.
3. Ensure you have access to support from a member of the Restorative and Mediation Service team throughout your cases, and that you receive supervision, appraisal reviews and one-to-one support as required.
4. Reimburse expenses incurred by Restorative Justice Facilitators following standard procedures.
5. Treat all Facilitators in accordance with Essex PFCC's equal opportunities policy.
6. Address any problems, complaints and difficulties raised by Restorative Justice Facilitators.

Commitment

As a team, we are responsible for providing a professional service to vulnerable clients, during what can be a particularly challenging and distressing period of their life.

As you might imagine, fulfilling the needs and expectations of our clients, referrers, and funders places a huge demand on the service. In order to reassure all concerned that Restorative Justice can respond to these demands in a timely and consistent manner, and in order that appropriate levels of support can be maintained at all times, we ask each of our Facilitators to typically spend up to 18-20 hours on a case. This time may be spread over several weeks, possibly amounting to around 6 hours per week. Hours required depend on the number of referrals received by the Service. Work will be carried out at times to suit the volunteer and participants, therefore some evening and weekend work will probably be required.

In order to maintain your status as a Restorative Justice Facilitator, it is expected that you will:

- Participate in a one-to-one review and support session with a Restorative Justice Development Manager/Restorative Justice Coordinator every 6 months, and attend refresher training every 12 months.
- Agree to facilitate at least four cases per year.
- Notify us (and clients where applicable) of any period of absence or inactivity. If you are unable to carry out your role for a period of a month or more, we'd be grateful if you could contact us and request a 'stand-down' to ensure that no new cases are allocated to you. If you request a stand-down, it would be helpful to know the reason it's required and the date you expect to be in a position to resume your normal commitment. With your permission, we will stay in touch throughout the stand-down period to check how you are and any support we might be able to offer you. If a stand-down period extends beyond three months, a meeting will be arranged with a coordinator on your return, to establish your readiness to resume full duties, and to discuss any training and development needs that may have arisen as a result of your absence.

We request that you notify us of your intentions should you wish to leave the scheme and surrender your ID badge, mobile phone and any other applicable materials upon leaving, or upon any stand-down period which is expected to exceed 3 months.

Finally, we request that you attend at least one team meeting per year and it is also hoped that you will participate in our social activities throughout the year, to build relationships with colleagues and maintain the team identity.

Please confirm your acceptance of the Facilitator Agreement by signing below:

INDEPENDENT CUSTODY VISITING SCHEME MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

On appointment, or reappointment, all Independent Custody Visitors are required to sign the Memorandum of Understanding which summarises their agreed responsibilities and the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner's expectations of what is expected of each Custody Visitor.

The Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner (PFCC) may revise the Memorandum of Understanding from time to time as required.

1. APPOINTMENTS

Appointments are subject to a six month trial period (which may be extended if required). Subject to continuing satisfactory performance and suitability, the OPFCC will appoint the Independent Custody Visitor.

2. ANNUAL REVIEWS

All Independent Custody Visitors are required to participate in the Annual Performance Review process undertaken by the Coordinator or Scheme Manager. The annual reviews are held to review the performance of each Independent Custody Visitor and to assess their willingness and ability to continue.

3. CHANGE OF CIRCUMSTANCES

You are required to notify the Scheme Manager of any change in circumstances, which will affect your position as an Independent Custody Visitor e.g. if you are arrested and charged with a criminal offence, or become a magistrate, special constable, or police officer, or undertake any other work which may present you with a conflict of interest.

4. EXPENSES

Your work as an Independent Custody Visitor is entirely voluntary but certain reasonably incurred expenses, including travel may be claimed. Expense claims made on the appropriate form should be submitted monthly with necessary supporting receipts.

5. MISCONDUCT
